MAMA MIA, A TASTE OF NAPLES IN PEEKSKILL

(Peekskill, New York)... Mayor John G. Testa and members of the Common Council will warmly welcome Di Nardo's Trattoria at a ribbon cutting ceremony on Thursday, October 24 2002 at 5:00 pm at 418 Washington Street.

Michael and Lucy Di Nardo are the creative team who purchased the old Santa Lucia Restaurant on Washington Street in Peekskill. Prior to buying this popular neighborhood restaurant, the Di Nardo's owned and operated several restaurants in Westchester County including, Mama Lucia in Katonah. They have spent the past several months renovating the restaurant and are prepared to serve lunch and dinner in a cheerful and well-lit environment. Their specialty is service authentic homemade Napolitano style cuisine.

"Being in Peekskill is like being at home. This place is comfortable, I enjoy cooking and my wife Lucy and I treat our customers like family. Our Napolitano dishes are the best in the Westchester - there is no comparison. We invite you to come and taste for yourself", offered Michael and Lucy Di Nardo.

"The Common Council and I are pleased that Michael and Lucy Di Nardo have chosen to open a business in Peekskill and renovated this neighborhood restaurant which has served the residents of Peekskill for many years. Di Nardo's Trattoria is cementing Peekskill's reputation as the city of dining opportunities. My colleagues on the Common Council and I wish Michael and Lucy Di Nardo much success in this endeavor," remarked Mayor John G. Testa.
