

OPERATION BIG DOG

City of Peekskill Police, County Police, and Federal Drug Enforcement Agency make Drug Sweep City Wide

Mayor Testa addresses the media about “Operation Big Dog” in which the City of Peekskill Police, Westchester County Police, and Federal DEA officers worked together on the operation. 52 out of 87 people were arrested on Monday, March 1, 2004. Joining Mayor Testa are District Attorney Jeanine Pirro, Peekskill Police Chief Eugene Tumolo, Federal Drug Enforcement Agency representative Ernest Yenco, and members of the Peekskill Police Department and Westchester County Police Department. Mayor Testa said that Drugs will not be tolerated in the city, Westchester County District Attorney Jeanine Pirro briefs the media on Operation Big Dog at a recent press conference. The District Attorney praised the officers that worked on this operation and said that this sent a strong message to those suspects that were arrested.

Peekskill Police Chief Eugene Tumolo is joined by Mayor Testa, District Attorney Jeanine Pirro, and DEA representative Ernest Yenco. The chief said that this was one of the largest busts in Northern Westchester County and the investigation is ongoing and will continue.