

LEGAL SERVICES OF THE HUDSON VALLEY'S PEEKSKILL OFFICE

The Legal Services of the Hudson Valley (LSHV) Peekskill office opened in 2014. Centrally located, within walking distance from the Peekskill library and city hall, the Peekskill office can be found in the same building as the Peekskill Social Security Administration resides. The address is One Park Place suite 303, Peekskill NY 10566.

The LSHV Peekskill office serves low-income households of northern Westchester and Putnam counties.

As the only organization providing comprehensive free civil legal services in the area, LSHV attorneys and staff are available to provide advocacy and representation for children, veterans, domestic violence survivors, the elderly, people with physical, mental and developmental disabilities, those at risk of foreclosure or eviction, individuals and families in need of public benefits, people affected by health crises, members of the LGBTQ community and people living with HIV/AIDS.

The Peekskill office is open Monday through Friday from 9AM to 5PM. Members of the community can walk in during these hours to fill out an intake application to access services or call our intake hotline at:

1-877-574-8529.

The Peekskill office's staff members are very active in the community and participate in the Peekskill Agency Together meetings, community health fairs, and food pantries sponsored throughout the Northern Westchester and Putnam area.

The Peekskill office also organizes an annual Peekskill Domestic Violence Awareness event to educate and shed light on the issue of DV in the community. The Peekskill office can also assist with emergencies such as an illegal lock out, an eviction notice, and when individuals need to access benefits for emergency shelter and food.

OUR SUCCESS:

Since opening in 2014, Legal Services of the Hudson Valley handled approximately 1000 cases, benefitting more than 1,800 people through our Peekskill office.
